1994 Silver Streak 21' – Aluminum Cabin with Yamaha Power & Trailer | Well-Maintained | Repowered | Moorage Available

This 1994 Silver Streak 21' is a rare opportunity to own a true West Coast aluminum classic. Built in British Columbia, Silver Streak boats are renowned for their rugged welded construction, commercial-grade reliability, and proven seaworthiness.

This vessel has had only two owners since new and has been boathouse kept for the majority of its life, preserving its condition and value. A full repower in 2010 with a Yamaha 250hp 4-stroke (just 262 hours) ensures modern, efficient performance.

Key Features:

Yamaha 250hp 4-stroke (2010) – 262 hours

Yamaha 9.9hp kicker – Ideal for trolling or emergency power

2010 EZ Loader galvanized trailer – Included

2024 bottom paint – Launch-ready (Blackline Marine)

Hardtop cabin with V-Birth, Force10 Stove, Head – Excellent visibility and weather protection

Full rear deck enclosure – Comfort and protection in any season

Raymarine GPS, Radar – Complete navigation electronics package

Large, open self-bailing deck – Versatile layout for fishing, crabbing, or transporting gear

Scotty fishing mounts and wired downrigger plugs – Turnkey setup for anglers

Welded aluminum hull – Legendary Silver Streak durability

Additional Information:

Only 2 owners since new

Boathouse kept for the majority of its life

Transferable open moorage available at North Saanich Marina

This is a solid, dependable vessel ideal for West Coast cruising, sport fishing, or utility use. Rarely do Silver Streaks of this size and condition come available, especially with low-hour Yamaha power and transferable moorage.
